

Rejane “Johnnie” Burton

Ms. Burton’s appointment as Director, Minerals Management Service, became effective on March 15, 2002.

Ms. Burton’s background provides a solid mix of experience in state government, the oil and gas industry, and education. Since 1995, she served on the governor of Wyoming’s cabinet as director of the Department of Revenue. Before that, she served (1989-92) as vice-president of TCF Inc., an oil and gas exploration company based in Casper, Wyoming.

Prior to that, she was vice president of Dwights Energydata Inc., an information company specializing in oil and gas databases. Ms. Burton was also president and founder of Hotline Energy Reports Inc., which later merged with Dwights Energydata Inc. Under her leadership, Hotline Energy Reports Inc., built a historical database of all wells drilled for oil and gas in the 11 Rocky Mountain States. Ms. Burton began her career in the oil and gas industry as an oil scout in Casper, Wyoming, for Rinehart Oil News of San Antonio, Texas.

From 1982 through 1988, Ms. Burton was a member of the Wyoming State House of Representatives. She served as a member of the Wyoming State Advisory Council of Education Grants (1986-88), and also as director of the First Wyoming Bank in Casper from 1981 through 1984. She served as a member of the Independent Petroleum Association of Mountain States Speaker’s Bureau from 1977 through 1979.

Her career highlights also include positions as a lecturer and teacher of French at the university and high school levels and as a translator and interpreter for the J. F. Pritchard Company in Paris, France, and Kansas City, Kansas. In 1987, she was honored as a “Friend of Education” by the Wyoming School Boards Association.

Ms. Burton is a member of the National Order of Women Legislators and the American Association of Translators. She is also a member of the National Alcohol Beverage Control Association and served as its president, representing Wyoming from 2000 to 2001.

Born in French Algeria, Ms. Burton immigrated to the United States in 1963 and became an American citizen in 1968. In 1958, she completed the Baccalaureat de l’Enseignement Secondaire (option Philosophie) from the Lycee Fromentin in Algiers, Algeria. She completed the Licence-es-Lettres, English, Diplome d’Enseignement from the Universities of Algiers in Algeria and in Paris, France, in 1962. She holds a master’s degree (1974) from the University of Wyoming. She studied at the University of Arkansas and has completed management training by The Presidents Association and Duke University.
